

AGENDA | TLV Annual Conference + Regional Chapter (Southeast Europe)

Tel Aviv 6-8.4.2022

*Open to all ISWA members

Tuesday 5th April

All day	Arrivals, Covid Procedures, Welcome Dinner
----------------	--	--

Wednesday 6th April

Time	Activity	Location
09:00 – 15:00	Hiriya and ISWA Joint International Conference Topic: climate implications of WM activities (Final agenda is attached)	Hiriya Recycling Park
16:00 - 18:00	Regional Chapter Meeting	Hiriya /Meeting Room
19:00	Gala Dinner	TBA

Thursday 7th April

09:00 – 12:00	Technical Tours: Rehabilitated Historic Dumpsite, Recycling Park, Art Tour.	Hiriya Recycling Park
12:00-13:00	Lunch
13:00 – 17:00	Seminar for Regional Chapter members, Local authorities representatives & waste experts. (Open to other ISWA members) Final agenda will be sent soon
19:00	Optional: Sunset tour, Jaffa old city & harbor
20:00	Dinner	TBA

Friday 8th April

08:00 – 18:00	Day Trip to Nazareth and Haifa. We'll visit some of Israel's most important Christian sites in the north part of the country, which is full of blooming areas in the Spring season.
----------------------	--

The Fifth Annual Waste Management Conference in memory of Danny Sternberg:

"Wasted Climate?"
Impacts of Waste Management Actions on Climate Change

The Center for Environmental Education. 8:30-14:30

8:30-9:00 Gathering, registration, and coffee

9:00-11:30 Part 1	Opening & Vision Session	The Vision of the Ministry of Environmental Protection to Reduce Emissions in the Waste Management Sector Ms. Tamar Zandberg, Environmental Protection Minister of Israel Tel Aviv-Jaffa Municipality Roadmap to Reduce Waste and Reduce Emissions as a Model for the Role of Local Government Mr. Ron Huldai, Mayor of Tel Aviv Vision and Actions of ISWA Following the Glasgow Climate Conference Mr. Carlos Silva Filho, President of International Solid Waste Management Association (ISWA) Hiriya Recycling Park Initiative to Reduce Greenhouse Gas Emissions Mr. Gil Livne, CEO of Dan Region Association of Towns
	Scientific Session	Hiriya's Climatic Rating for Waste Management Alternatives as a Basis for Decision Making Ms. Fanny Joubert, Project Manager & Mr. Ron Kamara, Head of Climate Change and Energy Policy Team, EcoTraders Ltd. Climatic Benefits from Dumpsite and Landfill Closures with Improved Integrated Waste Management Plan Mr. James Law, Vice President of SCS Engineers (USA), ISWA Board Member, Chair of the Working Group on Landfill and the Task Force on Closing Dumpsites Re-inventing the Waste Supply-Chain According to Climatic Parameters Mr. Antonis Mavropoulos, Waste Management Consult & Former ISWA President

11:30-12:15 Coffee Break

12:15-14:30 Part 2	Israeli Technologies Session	The Commercial System of 'Homebiogas' for Organic Waste and the Evaluation of the Contribution to Methane Reduction and Renewable Energy Ms. Yamit Naftali, Director of Strategy and Business development, HomeBiogas The Impact of Waste Management Policy on GHG Reductions in the Cement Industry Dr. Amit Marmur, VP Environmental Affairs and Sustainability, Neshar Israel Cement Enterprises Turning Household Waste into a Raw Material with a Positive Carbon Footprint Mr. Jack Tato Bigio, Co-Founder & Co-CEO, UBQ Materials Measurable Climatic Parameters While Using the "EcoCal" System for Waste Collection Hani Cohen, Head of Sanitation Division, Mashkal
		Policy Tools for Reducing Carbon Emissions in Waste Management Panel moderator: Mr. Gil Livne Participants: Mr. Ram Shefa, Parliament Member Mr. Ziv Deshe, Mayor of Zichron Yaakov Mr. Elad Amichai, VP of Local Government, Ministry of Environmental Protection Adv. Amit Bracha, Executive Director, Adam Teva V'Din

14:30 Lunch

Registration >>

